Places to see 必看

- Royal Palace & Silver Pagoda
Built from 1866. Royal buildings. The most visited in PP (Entrance $10/Adult).
- National Museum
The Museum houses numerous sculptures, relics and artefacts mainly from the Angkor period (Entrance $10/Adult).
- Wat Phnom
one of the oldest historical sites in Phnom Penh and a breath of fresh air. (Entrance $1/Adult).
- Toul Sleng Museum (Poisonous Hill) or also called S21 (Security Office 21)
The Khmer rouge set up a prison on this site in May 1976 to detain, torture and interrogate people accused of opposing the Pol Pot regime. (Entrance $5/Adult).

- River cruises
River cruise along the mighty Mekong and the Tonle Sap rivers are a popular excursion, especially around sunset. Boats are available for hire on the riverfront, offering varying degrees of quality and services. Kanika boats are one of the best bets, with sunset & dinner tours available. Only boat with insurance included. (From $8: 1h20 minutes).
- Phsar Thmei (Central Market)
Set aside time to explore the city's most famous local market in an art deco style building.
- Russian Market
Great place to shop for souvenirs and discounted name-brand clothing.
- Sosoro Museum
2000 years of history of Cambodia through its economy and its currencies. (Entrance $5/Adult).
- Independence monument
Independence monument was built in 1958 to memorialize Cambodian's independence from France in 1953. It was designed by the famous cambodian architect Vann Molyvann who was personally selected & instructed by King Norodom Sihanouk. It stand 37 meters tall.
